MARK

The Empty Tomb. The Stone the women found rolled away from the tomb.

3 And entering into away and told it unto the rest: neither the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed.
4 And he saith unto them, He not amazed: ye seek Jesus, he is risen, who hath been crucified: he is risen, as he said unto you.
5 But go, tell his disciples and Peter. He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.
6 And they went away with trembling and fear, and were afraid to say any thing, for they were afraid.

7 Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven devils.
8 And she went and told them that had been with him: when they heard that, they believed not.
9 And after these things he was seen unto them, when they were at the right hand, and preached unto them, and confirmed the word by the signs which he did among them.
10 And they went that followed. Amen.

11 And afterward he was seen unto them, when they were at the right hand, and preached unto them, and confirmed the word by the signs which he did among them.
12 And they went that followed. Amen.

ACCO

Forasmuch as I am bound to you, I have delivered the beginning of the good news of the kingdom of God to you.

Prophet, Birth of the Baptist foretold

as many have taken him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias, because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. 14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. 15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 And many of the children of Israel shall be turned unto the Lord their God. 17 And he shall go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. 18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well advanced in years. 19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, and I stand in the presence of God; and thou shalt be silent, and shalt not say these things until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believest not my words.

A black and white photograph of a seascape. In the foreground, a large fishing net with a diamond mesh pattern is draped diagonally across the frame. The net is held up by several dark circular floats. In the background, the ocean stretches to the horizon under a cloudy sky. On the right side, a rocky coastline is visible. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

HISTORY

Way back there in the year '49
A momentous thing happened in the annals of time Denison had a first grade so superior--so great-- that many felt it was the hand of fate.
Each mother smiled for she knew right away

Larry Blumberg, David Lytle.

Teacher was: Mrs. Vera Frazier

And throughout the years, students came and went really meant

how to sink hook shots, and sing do ri me.

We headed for high so cool secure in our fame.

Students during the grade years were: Mrs. Frazier

Mrs. Baker

Oh, yes, '57 was a banner year in our little city pretty.
